Art Unit: 3711

DETAILED ACTION

1. The Code of Federal Regulations, Title 37, (37 CFR) is publication which may be obtained from the Superintendent of Documents, U.S. Government Printing Office, Washington, D.C. 20402. If applicant intends to continue prosecution of this application, pro se, after a careful review of this action, he is strongly advised to obtain a copy of the most recent version of that publication and become familiar with all requirements of form and substance before preparing a response to this action.

2. (a) A patent by its very nature is affected with a public interest. The public interest is best served, and the most effective patent examination occurs when, at the time an application is being examined, the Office is aware of and evaluates the teachings of all information material to patentability. Each individual associated with the filing and prosecution of a patent application has a duty of candor and good faith in dealing with the Office, which includes a duty to disclose to the Office all information known to that individual to be material to patentability as defined in this section. The duty to disclose information exists with respect to each pending claim until the claim is cancelled or withdrawn from consideration, or the application becomes abandoned. Information material to the patentability of a claim that is cancelled or withdrawn from consideration need not be submitted if the information is not material to the patentability of any claim remaining under consideration in the application. There is no duty to submit information which is not material to the patentability of any existing claim. The duty to disclose all information known to be material to patentability is deemed to be satisfied if all information known to be material to patentability of any claim issued in a patent was cited by the Office or submitted to the Office in the manner prescribed by § 1.97(b) - (d) and 1.98. However, no patent will be granted on an application in connection with which fraud on the Office was practiced or attempted or the duty of disclosure was violated through bad faith or intentional misconduct. The Office encourages applicants to carefully examine:

(1) prior art cited in search reports of a foreign patent office in a counterpart application, and

(2) the closest information over which individuals associated with the filing or prosecution of a patent application believe any pending claim patentably defines, to make sure that any material information contained therein is disclosed to the Office.

(b) Under this section, information is material to patentability when it is not cumulative to information already of record or being made of record in the application, and

(1) It establishes, by itself or in combination with other information, a prima facie case of unpatentability of a claim; or

(2) It refutes, or is inconsistent with, a position the applicant takes in:

Art Unit: 3711

(i) Opposing an argument of unpatentability relied on by the Office, or

(ii) Asserting an argument of patentability.

A prima facie case of unpatentability is established when the information compels a conclusion that a claim is unpatentable under the preponderance of evidence, burden-of-proof standard, giving each term in the claim its broadest reasonable construction consistent with the specification, and before any consideration is given to evidence which may be submitted in an attempt to establish a contrary conclusion of patentability.

(c) Individuals associated with the filing or prosecution of a patent application within the meaning of this section are:

(1) Each inventor named in the application;

(2) Each attorney or agent who prepares or prosecutes the application; and

(3) Every other person who is substantively involved in the preparation or prosecution of the application and who is associated with the inventor, with the assignee or with anyone to whom there is an obligation to assign the application.

(d) Individuals other than the attorney, agent or inventor may comply with this section by disclosing information to the attorney, agent, or inventor. 37 CFR 1.56

Specification

3. The title of the invention is not descriptive. A new title is required that is clearly indicative of the invention to which the claims are directed.

The following title is suggested: --Game Table with Curved Playing Surface--.

4. In order to minimize the necessity in the future for converting dimensions given in the English system of measurements to the metric system of measurements when using printed patents as research and prior art search documents, the metric (SI) units should be followed by the equivalent English units. See MPEP § 608.01.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

5. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

6. Claims 1-10 are rejected as failing to define the invention in the manner required by 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph.

The claims are narrative in form and replete with indefinite and functional or operational language. The structure which goes to make up the device must be clearly and positively specified. The structure must be organized and correlated in such a manner as to present a complete operative device. The claims must be in one sentence form only. Note the format of the claims in the patents cited.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC §§ 102 and 103

7. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless -

Art Unit: 3711

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

8. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

9. Claims 1-8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by U.S. Patent Number 5,398,926 (Skinner).

Regarding claims 1-6, insofar as the scope of the claims can be understood, Skinner notes on column 2, lines 8-26, that Soviet patent number 1,556,699 discloses a table tennis top capable of being used in the water and includes a concave playing surface and a net. Applicant is reminded that prior art meeting the structural limitations of the claims and that is inherently capable of performing the intended use fully meets the claims under 35 USC 102.

Regarding claims 7 and 8, Figure 1 of Skinner shows a curved surface and net which is inherently capable of resting on the ground.

10. Claims 9 and 10 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Skinner as applied above.

Art Unit: 3711

Regarding claim 9, table tennis tables are old and well-known in the art to be made with two separate halves.

Regarding claim 10, table tops are inherently capable of rolling.

Conclusion

11. If applicant decides to continue prosecution of this application there are a number of requirements and an additional number of further options.

a. Applicant is required to:

i. request reconsideration;

ii. respond to every ground of rejection and objection noted in this action; and,

iii. argue the patentability of each claim by pointing out how it is not considered to be indefinite and how it avoids the prior art when applied alone or in combination against it. 37 CFR 1.111(b).

b. Applicant is allowed to, among other things:

i. request that the correction of formal matters be held in abeyance until allowable subject matter has been indicated (if this action includes an indication of allowable subject matter, such as by including a suggested claim, applicant must correct all formal matters, except for drawing corrections indicated on PTO Form 948 which may be delayed until any proposed drawing changes have been approved);

ii. amend any or all of the present claims (see 37 CFR 1.121 for procedures for amending claims);

iii. cancel any or all of the present claims; and,

iv. add one or more new claims (if the number of claims - total and/or independent - remaining in this case after a response is entered will exceed the number previously paid for, an additional fee will be required and such additional fee must accompany the response).

12. In accordance with 1173 OG 13, any response to this Office action should be addressed to:

Commissioner for Patents
PO Box 1450
Alexandria, VA 22313-1450

Any appropriate Special Box designation as currently listed in each issue of the Official Gazette should also be used. Note also 37 CFR 1.2.

1.2 Business to be transacted in writing.

All business with the Patent and Trademark Office should be transacted in writing. The personal attendance of applicants or their attorneys or agents at the Patent and Trademark Office is unnecessary. The action of the Patent and Trademark Office will be based exclusively on the written record in the Office. No attention will be paid to any alleged oral promise, stipulation, or understanding in relation to which there is disagreement or doubt.

Art Unit: 3711
